Collaborations don't just spontaneously 'happen'

They start with relationships.....
and

Relationships don't just form without an opportunity to 'meet' like-minded' individuals

'Connecting' Local and Global One Health Stakeholders

From this Webinar we hope that strategic partnerships will emerge as we form relationships and learn of each other's One Health programs and efforts

Closing Remarks

It's Up To US...the One Health Community...to determine whether the world makes the paradigm shift to One Health thinking by default.
